

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 22, 2024

Family Entertainment Television Names Christine Carbia Vice President of National Sales

South Bend, IN – Family Entertainment Television, home to flagship network FETV and sister movie network Family Movie Classics (FMC), announced today Christine Carbia has been named Vice President of National Sales. Carbia will be based in New York and report to Michael DuPont, Executive Vice President of National Sales. Carbia arrives to Family Entertainment Television with nearly twenty-five years of industry experience, previously working at USA, SYFY, Fox Broadcasting, and E.W. Scripps.

“Joining Family Entertainment TV as Vice President of National Sales is an exciting opportunity,” said Carbia. “I will draw on my relationships and experience to drive new business, supporting FETV’s continued growth and success.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Christine as our new Vice President of National Sales at Family Entertainment TV,” said DuPont. “With over two decades of experience at industry leaders like USA, Fox Broadcasting, and E.W. Scripps, Christine brings unparalleled strategic sales acumen and a robust network of relationships. Her expertise will be instrumental in driving new business opportunities and elevating our network’s market position.”

About FETV and FMC

Launched in 2013, FETV is home to a 24-hour schedule of beloved and timeless television series and movies carried across cable, satellite and virtual platforms reaching 50 million homes. Launched in 2021, FMC features a 24-hour schedule celebrating the depth and variety of movies from the 1930’s through the 1980’s, and is currently available on DIRECTV, DIRECTV Stream, AT&T U-verse, DISH, Xfinity, Frndly, Philo, and altafiber. FETV and FMC are independently owned and operated by Family Broadcasting Company based in South Bend, Indiana with an office in New York City.